Art Unit 142

- 12. Restriction is required under 35 USC 121 between the distinct inventions as grouped below:
- I. Claims 1-11 drawn to a protein-containing tissue adhesive or method of making it classified in Class 106, subclass 157.
- II. Claims 12-14 drawn to a method of seamlessly connecting human or animal tissue using the tissue adhesive of Group I, classified in Class 128, subclass 82.1.
- 13. The inventions are distinct as the method of Group II is not restricted to the use of the adhesive of Group I alone, as is evident from consideration of claims 13 and 14. Also, it seems evident that the method of Group II could be followed using another coagulating adhesive such as mentioned in lines 10-14 page 2 of the specification.
- 14. Since these distinct inventions have acquired a separate status in the art, as shown by the above classification, since the fields of search are not co-extensive, and since each of the inventions as grouped is capable of supporting a separate patent restriction for examination purposes is proper.
- 15. In order to be complete, applicants' response must include an election of one of the above-grouped inventions, even though the requirement is traversed.
